RFP # 2013-200 is recommended to Spartan Psychological Consulting, sole response received, as qualified to perform the services described as determined by the Juvenile Probation Department.

Two vendors were contacted and they were unable to bid due to conflicts within their schedules in reply to the response time required in the proposal. In Section 5.8 a forty-eight hours response time is required to administer services from the start of the request from Collin County. The solicitation was extended for an additional week to allow for additional responses.
